

The Honorable Karen Strombom

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff

v.

BILLY J. SWANN,

Defendant.

NO. CR16-5542

PLEA AGREEMENT

The United States of America, by and through Annette L. Hayes, United States Attorney for the Western District of Washington, and Seth Wilkinson, Assistant United States Attorney, BILLY J. SWANN, and his attorney, Douglas Tufts, enter into the following Agreement, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(B):

1. The Charge. Defendant, having been advised of the right to have this matter tried before a jury, agrees to waive that right and enter a plea of guilty to violating the Endangered Species Act, Title 16, United States Code, Sections 1538(a)(1)(D), 1538(a)(1)(G) and 1540(b), as charged in Count 1 of the Information.

By entering a plea of guilty, Defendant hereby waives all objections to the form of the charging document. Defendant further understands that before entering the guilty

1 plea, Defendant will be placed under oath. Any statement given by Defendant under oath
2 may be used by the United States in a prosecution for perjury or false statement.

3       2.     Elements of the Offense. The elements of the offense to which Defendant 4 is pleading guilty are as follows:

5             a.     The defendant violated a regulation pertaining to a threatened 6 species listed pursuant to 16 U.S.C. § 1533; and 7             b.     The defendant acted knowingly and without permission from the 8 United States Department of the Interior.

9             50 C.F.R. § 223.203(a) prohibits the taking, possession, sale, delivery, and 10 transportation of naturally-spawned salmon with intact adipose fins originating from the 11 Lower Columbia River ecologically sensitive unit.

12       3.     The Penalties. Defendant understands that the statutory penalties for 13 violating the Endangered Species Act are as follow: A term of imprisonment of up to one 14 year, a fine of up to $250,000 or twice the gross gain or loss resulting from the offense, a 15 period of supervision following release from prison of up to one year, and a mandatory 16 special assessment of $25. If a probationary sentence is imposed, the probationary period 17 can be up to five years. Defendant agrees that the special assessment shall be paid at or 18 before the time of sentencing.

19       Defendant understands that supervised release is a period of time following 20 imprisonment during which Defendant will be subject to certain restrictive conditions and 21 requirements. Defendant further understands that if supervised release is imposed and 22 Defendant violates one or more of the conditions or requirements, Defendant could be 23 returned to prison for all or part of the term of supervised release that was originally 24 imposed. This could result in Defendant serving a total term of imprisonment greater 25 than the statutory maximum stated above.

1 Defendant understands that as a part of any sentence, in addition to any term of 2 imprisonment and/or fine that is imposed, the Court may order Defendant to pay 3 restitution to any victim of the offense, as required by law.

4 Defendant agrees that any monetary penalty the Court imposes, including the 5 special assessment, fine, costs, or restitution, is due and payable immediately and further 6 agrees to submit a completed Financial Statement of Debtor form as requested by the 7 United States Attorney's Office.

8 4. Rights Waived by Pleading Guilty. Defendant understands that by 9 pleading guilty, Defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives the following rights:

- 10 a. The right to plead not guilty and to persist in a plea of not guilty;
- 11 b. The right to a speedy and public trial before a jury of his or her
- 12 peers;
- 13 c. The right to the effective assistance of counsel at trial, including, if
- 14 Defendant could not afford an attorney, the right to have the Court
- 15 appoint one for Defendant;
- 16 d. The right to be presumed innocent until guilt has been established
- 17 beyond a reasonable doubt at trial;
- 18 e. The right to confront and cross-examine witnesses against Defendant
- 19 at trial;
- 20 f. The right to compel or subpoena witnesses to appear on defendant's
- 21 behalf at trial;
- 22 g. The right to testify or to remain silent at trial, at which trial such
- 23 silence could not be used against Defendant; and
- 24 h. The right to appeal a finding of guilt or any pretrial rulings.

25 5. Ultimate Sentence. Defendant acknowledges that no one has promised or 26 guaranteed what sentence the Court will impose.

1           6. Statement of Facts. Defendant admits he is guilty of the charged offense.

2 The parties agree on the following facts:

3           a. Defendant is the owner and operator of Swanny's Guided Fishing, a 4 Washington company that leads guided fishing trips on the rivers of Western Washington 5 including the Cowlitz River.

6           b. Naturally spawned Coho salmon originating from the Cowlitz River 7 are listed as a threatened species under the Endangered Species Act ("ESA") and may not 8 be taken, captured, sold, possessed, transported or delivered. 50 C.F.R. 223.102.
9 Washington law also prohibits the removal from the Cowlitz River of any wild Coho 10 salmon. WAC 220-310-185(22). A "wild" salmon is defined as any Coho salmon with 11 an unclipped adipose fin. WAC 220-16-470.

12           c. On October 1, 2014, defendant provided guiding services for a group 13 of three clients. While fishing on the Cowlitz River, defendant encouraged and aided 14 members of the group to remove two naturally-spawned Coho salmon from the river.
15 The salmon had unclipped adipose fins and were protected under the ESA. After landing 16 the fish, defendant clubbed the fish, killing both of them.

17           d. At some point during the fishing excursion, defendant became aware 18 that it was unlawful to take the wild salmon. Defendant contends that he became aware 19 of this fact after the fish were landed. To conceal the fact that defendant had possession 20 of wild salmon in violation of the ESA and Washington law, defendant used a blade to 21 remove the intact adipose fins from the salmon. Further, defendant directed the two 22 clients who had landed the fish to falsely record on their Washington Department of Fish 23 and Wildlife Sport Catch Record Cards that the salmon were hatchery salmon when, as 24 defendant knew, the fish were wild salmon.

25           e. On January 22, 2015, defendant participated in an interview with a 26 Special Agent of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration ("NOAA").
27 During the interview, defendant denied that the salmon were taken unlawfully, and stated 28 that photographs published on the internet of the fish with the adipose fins intact "could have been photo shopped."

1           7. United States Sentencing Guidelines. Defendant understands and 2 acknowledges that the Court must consider the sentencing range calculated under the 3 United States Sentencing Guidelines and possible departures under the Sentencing 4 Guidelines together with the other factors set forth in Title 18, United States Code,

1 Section 3553(a), including: (1) the nature and circumstances of the offense; (2) the 2 history and characteristics of the defendant; (3) the need for the sentence to reflect the 3 seriousness of the offense, to promote respect for the law, and to provide just punishment 4 for the offense; (4) the need for the sentence to afford adequate deterrence to criminal 5 conduct; (5) the need for the sentence to protect the public from further crimes of the 6 defendant; (6) the need to provide the defendant with educational and vocational training, 7 medical care, or other correctional treatment in the most effective manner; (7) the kinds 8 of sentences available; (8) the need to provide restitution to victims; and (9) the need to 9 avoid unwarranted sentence disparity among defendants involved in similar conduct who 10 have similar records. Accordingly, Defendant understands and acknowledges that:

11 a. The Court will determine Defendant's applicable Sentencing 12 Guidelines range at the time of sentencing;

13 b. After consideration of the Sentencing Guidelines and the factors in 14 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the Court may impose any sentence authorized by law, up to the 15 maximum term authorized by law;

16 c. The Court is not bound by any recommendation regarding the 17 sentence to be imposed, or by any calculation or estimation of the Sentencing Guidelines 18 range offered by the parties or the United States Probation Department, or by any 19 stipulations or agreements between the parties in this Plea Agreement; and 20 d. Defendant may not withdraw the guilty plea solely because of the 21 sentence imposed by the Court.

22 8. Acceptance of Responsibility. The United States acknowledges that if 23 Defendant qualifies for an acceptance of responsibility adjustment pursuant to USSG 24 § 3E1.1(b), and if Defendant's offense level exceeds 16, the total offense level should be 25 decreased by three levels (or two levels if the offense level is less than 16) because 26 Defendant has clearly demonstrated acceptance of responsibility for the offense and has 27

1 assisted the government by timely notifying the authorities of Defendant's intention to 2 plead guilty.

3       9. Sentencing Factors. The parties agree that the following Sentencing 4 Guidelines provisions apply to this case:

5           a. The base offense level is six. USSG § 2Q2.1(a); and 6           b. The offense level should be increased by two points because the 7 offense was committed for pecuniary gain or commercial purpose or involved a pattern of 8 similar violations. USSG § 2Q2.1(b)(2); and 9           c. The offense level should be increased by four points because the 10 offense involved a species listed under the Endangered Species Act. USSG 11 § 2Q2.1(b)(3)(B).

12       The parties agree they are free to present arguments regarding the applicability of 13 all other provisions of the United States Sentencing Guidelines. Defendant understands, 14 however, that at the time of sentencing, the Court is free to reject these stipulations, and 15 is further free to apply additional downward or upward adjustments in determining 16 Defendant's Sentencing Guidelines range.

17       10. Sentencing Recommendation: The government agrees to recommend that 18 defendant be sentenced to a term of probation. The parties agree that the terms of 19 probation should include(a) a fine of not less than $5,000 and not more than $10,000, 20 with each party free to recommend any amount within that range; and (b) a requirement 21 that defendant publish a statement in a fishing trade publication approved by the 22 government. The statement, which must also be approved by the government prior to 23 publication, will acknowledge that wild salmon were unlawfully taken on a fishing trip 24 led by defendant, and will emphasize the importance of complying with federal and state 25 laws protecting fish and wildlife. Defendant understands that these recommendations are 26 not binding on the Court.

27       11. Non-Prosecution of Additional Offenses. As part of this Plea Agreement, 28 the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of Washington agrees not to

1 prosecute Defendant for any additional offenses known to it as of the time of this 2 Agreement that are based upon evidence in its possession at this time, and that arise out 3 of the conduct giving rise to this investigation, and to move to dismiss the remaining 4 counts in the indictment at the time of sentencing.

5 In this regard, Defendant recognizes the United States has agreed not to prosecute 6 all of the criminal charges the evidence establishes were committed by Defendant solely 7 because of the promises made by Defendant in this Agreement. Defendant agrees, 8 however, that for purposes of preparing the Presentence Report, the United States 9 Attorney's Office will provide the United States Probation Office with evidence of all 10 conduct committed by Defendant.

11 12. Breach, Waiver, and Post-Plea Conduct. Defendant agrees that if 12 Defendant breaches this Plea Agreement, the United States may withdraw from this Plea 13 Agreement and Defendant may be prosecuted for all offenses for which the United States 14 has evidence. Defendant agrees not to oppose any steps taken by the United States to 15 nullify this Plea Agreement, including the filing of a motion to withdraw from the Plea 16 Agreement. Defendant also agrees that if Defendant is in breach of this Plea Agreement, 17 Defendant has waived any objection to the re-institution of any charges in the Indictment 18 that were previously dismissed or any additional charges that had not been prosecuted.

19 Defendant further understands that if, after the date of this Agreement, Defendant 20 should engage in illegal conduct, or conduct that violates any conditions of release or the 21 conditions of his confinement, (examples of which include, but are not limited to, 22 obstruction of justice, failure to appear for a court proceeding, criminal conduct while 23 pending sentencing, and false statements to law enforcement agents, the Pretrial Services 24 Officer, Probation Officer, or Court), the United States is free under this Agreement to 25 file additional charges against Defendant or to seek a sentence that takes such conduct 26 into consideration by requesting the Court to apply additional adjustments or 27 enhancements in its Sentencing Guidelines calculations in order to increase the applicable

1 advisory Guidelines range, and/or by seeking an upward departure or variance from the 2 calculated advisory Guidelines range. Under these circumstances, the United States is 3 free to seek such adjustments, enhancements, departures, and/or variances even if 4 otherwise precluded by the terms of the plea agreement.

5 13. Waiver of Appellate Rights and Rights to Collateral Attacks.

6 Defendant acknowledges that by entering the guilty plea(s) required by this plea 7 agreement, Defendant waives all rights to appeal from Defendant's conviction and any 8 pretrial rulings of the court. Defendant further agrees that, provided the court imposes a 9 custodial sentence that is within or below the Sentencing Guidelines range (or the 10 statutory mandatory minimum, if greater than the Guidelines range) as determined by the 11 court at the time of sentencing, Defendant waives to the full extent of the law:

12 a. Any right conferred by Title 18, United States Code, § 3742, to 13 challenge, on direct appeal, the sentence imposed by the court, including any fine, 14 restitution order, probation or supervised release conditions, or forfeiture order (if 15 applicable); and

16 b. Any right to bring a collateral attack against the conviction and 17 sentence, including any restitution order imposed, except as it may relate to the 18 effectiveness of legal representation; and 19 This waiver does not preclude Defendant from bringing an appropriate motion 20 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241, to address the conditions of Defendant's confinement or 21 the decisions of the Bureau of Prisons regarding the execution of Defendant's sentence.

22 If Defendant breaches this Plea Agreement at any time by appealing or collaterally 23 attacking (except as to effectiveness of legal representation) the conviction or sentence in 24 any way, the United States may prosecute Defendant for any counts, including those with 25 mandatory minimum sentences, that were dismissed or not charged pursuant to this Plea 26 Agreement.

1        14.    Voluntariness of Plea. Defendant agrees that Defendant has entered into 2 this Plea Agreement freely and voluntarily and that no threats or promises, other than the 3 promises contained in this Plea Agreement, were made to induce Defendant to enter the 4 plea of guilty.

5        15.    Statute of Limitations. In the event this Agreement is not accepted by the 6 Court for any reason, or Defendant has breached any of the terms of this Plea Agreement, 7 the statute of limitations shall be deemed to have been tolled from the date of the Plea
 8 Agreement to: (1) thirty (30) days following the date of non-acceptance of the Plea 9 Agreement by the Court; or (2) thirty (30) days following the date on which a breach of 10 the Plea Agreement by Defendant is discovered by the United States Attorney's Office.

11        16.    Completeness of Agreement. The United States and Defendant
 12 acknowledge that these terms constitute the entire Plea Agreement between the parties.
 13 This Agreement binds only the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District 14 of Washington. It does not bind any other United States Attorney's Office or any other 15 office or agency of the United States, or any state or local prosecutor.
